

Exam Instructions – Using Physical Rough Sheet

For all Question requiring calculation and rough notes, all Examinees are encouraged to use the virtual Calculator and Notepad provided on the Launcher and the Console.

However, Examinees will be also be permitted to use 2-(two) unruled white sheet of A4-size paper for Writing, Scribbling and manual calculations. In all such cases an Examinee will mandatorily have to abide by the following instructions:

1. Examinees can only use both sides of 2 (two) unruled, blank A4-size sheet pages for writing (total 4 pages) and calculation
2. One BLACK coloured ink / ballpoint Pen is allowed for the above purpose. Pencils are not permitted.
3. Examinee MUST number all the pages of these two A4 size Sheets, as - #1 and #2 (first sheet front and back) and as #3 and #4 (second sheet front and back).
4. Examinee MUST hold up both the A4 Sheets (both sides) in front of the WebCam both, before the start of the Exam and after the completion of the Exam. These Sheets must be held facing the WebCam for at least 3 (three) minutes. The photos of the pages will be used as part of the invigilation.
5. All right-handed Examinees MUST keep the A4 sheet on his/her right side and all left-handed Examinees MUST keep these A4 sheets on the left of his/her side.
6. Examinees must comply when asked any time, for scrutiny during the Exam, by Remote Invigilators to hold up the A4 Sheet they are using in front of the Webcam.

All Examinees are advised against any attempted use of any unfair means whatsoever for the Exam. It will lead to disqualification.
