PREAMBLE

Since its establishment in 2003, SVKM's NMIMS has emerged as a preferred learning institution in India. After two decades of relentless pursuit of academic excellence, the University has set itself on the path of pursuing research excellence over the next decade. In pursuit of its new goal of transforming from a teaching University to a research university with high academic excellence standards, the University has made research an integral part of the entire faculty lifecycle, including recruitment, promotion, reward, and recognition. To encourage its faculty members to pursue high-quality basic and applied research, SVKM's NMIMS is committed to providing support and building a research culture.

1. SEED FUNDING SCHEME

Funding is an essential component of any type of research. Government funding agencies also ask for preliminary data on some specific research proposals. So, faculty members require funding to generate preliminary data on proof of concept, which can be used to develop full proposals to be submitted to various funding agencies. Faculty members also require funding to maintain the continuity of research. SVKM's NMIMS provides financial support to faculty members for research through the 'Seed Funding Scheme'. The objectives of the scheme are to fast-track the opportunity to obtain funding from government and non-government agencies in the future and to increase the contribution of faculty in the area of research through quality publications and patents. A faculty can get seed funding up to Rs. 2 lakhs for research.

2. FOREIGN TRAVEL

The opening up of the education sector and the globalization in the various spheres of life have created reasons to consider foreign travel for purposes like exploration of international opportunities, linkages, participation in intellectual events, research and spread of education. Faculty can avail funding –

- To present a paper at a conference, provided the paper meets the eligibility criteria
- To attend a training programme, sponsored at least partly by the foreign entity conducting the programme.
- To negotiate and finalise tie-ups with foreign universities, and to execute agreements with them.
- To teach at an overseas university, as part of faculty exchange programme.
- To escort students of the University on educational tour.

3. INCENTIVES

a. Publications

To reward and encourage quality intellectual and scholarly contributions and to ensure that the faculty members get more time for research and maintain a robust research pipeline, SVKM's NMIMS offers the following monetary incentives for full-time faculty members.
